Seat at Your Table

Helping men pursue a focused life

A Note to the Reader

This “Fueled” tool was originally designed as a summer agenda for the men of Columbia, SC who are involved in Focused Living Men’s Forums. This booklet is formatted to help men process a Christian book while reading corresponding scripture so they may grow deeper in their love for Christ. Though the rhythm and format of this tool are geared toward the Men of FLM, this booklet can be used for any individual or small group study...any time of year!

You were designed to be both FILLED and FUELED with God’s grace and truth in His Spirit (John 1:14). The temptation during the summer months is to take a vacation from God. That is why so many of God’s men run on empty and end up falling out of fellowship with the Lord. Don’t do it! FILL your mind with His truth and FUEL your heart with the high octane fellowship of God and some of His men.

To help guide our focus in the Scriptures this summer, we will be reading through the following book:

Don’t Give The Enemy A Seat At Your Table by Louie Giglio
ISBN: 078524722X Passion Publishing/ 2021/ hardcover

We strongly encourage you to watch Louie Giglio’s sermon inspired by this book.

Plan of Action

So that you don't run on empty this summer, we encourage you to fuel your life in the Lord by doing the following:

- ◆ Personally dedicate 3-4 unhurried blocks of time each week in the summer: basically every other day for 20-30 minutes.
- ◆ How to interact with a chapter from Don't Give the Enemy a Seat at Your Table.
On each journal page in this Fueled guide, we included some reflection and applications questions*. It's probably most helpful to quickly read these before you read the book chapter. We also recommend having your Bible open so you can find the Scriptures mentioned in your own Bible. As always, record a few of your thoughts, insights and applications on these journal pages. This gives the Holy Spirit room to transform you by driving the truth of His Word from your head to your heart. You will notice that two pages are set aside each week for journaling the book chapter. You may find it beneficial to allot two sittings to finish the book chapter each week. It may be meaningful to finish your time by writing a prayer from the heart in response to your time with the Father.
- ◆ Meet with men each week to hear their insights and share your own to build up one another in Christ.

Meeting with God

We are hoping that you come to view your time alone with God, not as “Reading the Bible” but as “Meeting with God.” Recognize that God longs to meet with you and to impress His truth on your heart.

There are a variety of ways to process your time alone with God. The next page provides a simple outline. Use this outline or find another way that resonates with you in this season of your life. Whichever way you choose to process scripture, we encourage you to...

- ALWAYS WRITE SOMETHING DOWN
- ALWAYS BEGIN AND END WITH PRAYER

The passages and verses contained in this guide are provided to focus your attention on a particular theme or principle. It’s certainly fine, and advisable, to read the surrounding verses to get a sense of the context.

On each Scripture reading day, you’ll see some “prime the pump” questions printed right underneath the Scripture addresses for that day. We recommend reading these first to tune your antenna towards the topic you’ll be reading. We hope these are thought provoking and application inspiring.

A Way to Organize Your Time with God

WHO are you addressing?

Always start your time with a quiet, reverent prayer of praise. Recognize that you are coming into the very presence of your Creator, eternal God and gracious Lord! As you approach the Father remember that it cost Him His own Son to forgive your sin so that you could come into His presence forgiven and with great joy.

WHAT is God saying?

Read the passage as though you were there. Slowly read it at least twice to get the big picture context and to understand what is taking place. Smell the surroundings; hear the crowds; see the sights; feel the emotions; sense the relationships. Note the Who, What, Where, Why and How. Record any promises, principles, insights, commands or challenges.

SO WHAT is God saying to you?

Stop to reflect and listen. In particular, what most grabbed your attention, stirred your mind or gripped your heart? “God, what do You want me to learn from this today? Why this word, why here, why now?”

NOW WHAT is God asking you to do?

What will you do with the truth God has revealed to you? How will you obey it, process it, apply it and live it out? What is the one thing He is asking you to practically think, say or do in order to become more like Christ? With whom will you share today what you discovered while in His presence? We encourage you to write out a short, heartfelt prayer to the Lord asking Him to help you to be faithful in living out the truth He gave to you.

Forum Flow

The weekly reading includes one chapter from Don't Give the Enemy a Seat at Your Table and two days' worth of related scriptures. To make facilitating a discussion on this material less overwhelming and more fun, we encourage a two man sharing team each week. We call these guys the 'First Sharers.' One of the pair will lead out in discussing the related Bible passages. The other man in the pairing will then take the lead in discussing his key takeaways from Don't Give the Enemy a Seat at Your Table chapter.

Remember, the point is not to rehash every detail of the material. The point is to create an environment where guys can express what God impressed on them as they worked through the material.

Here's a suggested flow for a 59 minute gathering.

- ◆ Meet, greet and open in Prayer (5 min)
- ◆ Remind men 'on deck' who's facilitating next week (1 min)
- ◆ Introduce the theme of the chapter (2 min).
- ◆ Guy #1 shares passage(s) that meant most to him. (8 min)
  - "As I reflected on [Scriptures (chapter & verse)] the truth God used to grab my heart was ...."
  - "Here's one way I purpose to apply these scriptures ...."
- ◆ Guy #2 shares insights from Don't Give the Enemy a Seat at Your Table book that meant most to him. (8 min)
  - "As I read this week's chapter God taught me..."
  - "These principles challenged me to...."
- ◆ Invite others to share the Bible truths and insights from Don't Give the Enemy a Seat at Your Table that fueled their hearts. (25min)
  - "Anyone Else? What did God impress on you from this chapter or from these scriptures?"
- ◆ TAG Teams What's your main take away and how do you plan to apply it to your life? Close in Prayer. (8min)

Let's recall the perfect beginning (1:31). Made in God's image (1:26-27), man and woman had the ability to relate with God and the authority to represent Him. What characterized this relationship between God and humans? What was man's mission?

Read the following scripture. Journal your insights. Respond to the truth that most fuels your soul by writing a prayer to the Lord.

Sometime after day 6 of creation when everything was very good and before Eve was tempted, some angels (created moral beings) rebelled. What do I learn from satan's strategy in tempting Eve? How did this impact relationship with God? With each other? What threads of the Gospel do you see in this passage?

For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.

blank space to practice writing out

1Corinthians 10:1-13

How does God demonstrate His faithfulness as I undergo temptation (:13; Heb 2:18)? What's my part in overcoming temptation? God built a resume of faithfulness over Israel's history (:1-11; Ex 13-17). What kind of resume is He building in my life? What lessons has He taught me from the temptations I faced successfully? Not successfully?

Week 4

2Kings 6:8-23

God deals in the currency of invisible realities (2Cor 4:16-18; Heb 11:1; Josh 3:11-17). In fact, there is a reality more real than what I see with my eyes. What's the connection between faith in God and living in His invisible realities? When I am surrounded by the enemy, what is the invisible reality that God wants me to lean into?

Chapter 4: Deadly Lies Exposed

Here are some ways to know that the Enemy is at my table. Can I identify this lie in my life? How does it sound in my mind?

I think...

“I’m not going to make it” (hopeless)

“I’m not good enough (worthlessness)

“Everyone is against me” (Isolation)

“I just can’t live the life God’s called me to” (powerless)

Which one of these (or some other lie I have bought into) seem to trip me up the most? Remember, I will never hear these lies from my Good Shepherd. What scripture could I use to combat this lie?

Romans 6

How does Christ's death and resurrection tie into my relationship with sin? What is the good news in this passage? What commands are in this passage? What is my part in experiencing the reality of being "dead to sin" (:11) and "slaves of righteousness" (:17). How important is right thinking and right choosing?

Titus 2:11 – 3:8

According to this passage, what teaches me to say “No” to the temptations of my flesh and this world (2:11-12) to which I was once enslaved (3:3). What is the effect of the grace of God in my life right now? On what basis am I declared right with God (3:3-7).” What is the natural (supernatural) outflow from my salvation (2:14; 3:1, 3:8)?

Chapter 5: Spiral of Sin

As I eavesdrop on Jesus praying for me, what specifics do I hear? How does this make me feel? How have I recently experienced the reality that I am 'in the world, but not of it?' What sanctifies me or sets me apart for God's purposes (:17, 19)?

Chapter 6: Freedom Revolution

“Whatever Jesus has won, we have won also.”
